MANHOOD
IN THE
YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show their baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwardly upon themselves.

If the patient be a female the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety as the first symptom in which nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on. The energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S
EXTRACT BUCHU
For Weakness Arising from Excesses or Early Indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms. Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for fear of themselves, no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

THESE SYMPTOMS, IF ALLOWED TO GO ON—WHICH THIS MEDICINE INVARIABLY REMOVES—SOON FOLLOW LOSS OF POWER, FATUITY AND EPILEPTIC FITS, IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this same result occurred to two patients. Reason had for a time then, and left both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute; neither mirth nor grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.

"With woful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price $1 25 per bottle, or six bottles for 6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

RAILROAD
Runs through one of the richest portions of Illinois and Indiana, connecting Chicago by the shortest route with the celebrated Block Coal fields of Indiana, and by way of Evansville and Nashville with the entire South. Its mortgage debt is $18,500 to the mile. The road is already earning, after all operating expenses are paid, much
More than the Entire Interest on all its bonds. While railroad bonds may be plenty, those upon paying lines and for so small a sum to the mile, are seldom in the market.
We do not hesitate to recommend them as unusually safe. They are not attended with the uncertainties of projected enterprises, and the prompt payment of the interest, and the final payment of the principal, are as certain as any future financial event.
The Bonds are a First Mortgage and are for $1,000 each, have forty years to run, and bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, payable on the first of April and October, both principal and interest being payable in gold in New York.
We have sold over One Million in the last few weeks to Trust Companies, and for the investment of Trust Funds, and to the most careful investors, and have but a small amount remaining.

JULIA WARD HOWE ON SAN DOMINGO.—A letter from Mrs. Julia Ward Howe to the Woman's Journal, under date of Samana, February 28th, incidentally introduced some descriptions that hardly agree with those of Mr. Sumner and other anti-annexationists, regarding the actual character of Baez and the people generally. After describing her preparations to receive a visit from President Baez, she writes:—

The President himself did not arrive until some hours later. He then came accompanied by a single servant. Let me describe him briefly as a man of cordial and polite address, with an intelligent countenance, and a pleasant voice. He is of middle height, in age somewhere between 50 and 60 years. His complexion shows a slight mixture of African blood; but his eyes are blue, and his hair only a little curled. He is certainly a man of mark, unless his face belies him. One cannot learn a great deal concerning character in a first visit, and especially in a visit of ceremony; but the first impression is always an important element in forming such judgments, and Baez impressed us, one and all, as a genuine man. We had already seen him at the Cathedral, but the nearer view of his face was better than the more distant one.

On the main question, annexation, she says:

Concerning some opinions which are zealously circulated in the United States, we are already able to form an opinion. Nothing less resembles Mr. Sumner's portrait of an usurper, maintaining his ill-gotten position by military violence, in league with the Navy of the United States, than the facts as we find them. Here is President Baez, living among his people, and going about in their midst as freely and simply as they do. There is no United States ship in sight, or within hearing. Where is the patriot Cabral? He belongs we should think, with the Tammany leaders, perhaps has gone to impart to them his discoveries in American gullibility. The island is peaceful and prosperous. The people look always towards the United States, and the rage and animosity stirred up there by party cabal are to them a matter for mute astonishment. I met last evening with Judge Gross, one of the most intelligent men of color in this place. "I hoped," said he, "that after the return of the commission last year, the distinguished Mr. Sumner would have been satisfied that he had been misinformed as to the state of things on the island. We thought, too, that the people of the United States would have appreciated what we offered them. And so they would have done, had the question been tried on its own merits, without the admixture of personals and party hatreds."

Concerning the American blacks in Santo Domingo, she says:

"The Judge belongs to a class of people entirely overlooked in the anti-annexation argument, but really of a representative importance. This class is that of the American blacks, the individuals who formed the two principal emigrations from the States, and their descendents. The oldest people among these date from the emigration of 1825, organized under the care of Henry Clay. A younger set came a generation later. These people are very intelligent and energetic.—They have, without exception, adhered to Protestantism. They are laborious, the men working at various trades, and the women helping in households, or taking in washing. They are ardent annexationists, and speak of themselves as Americans. They have a church building and organization; but their minister is very infirm, and quite unable to conduct their Sunday service. This last is in consequence omitted, to their regret. But they hold meetings at which they practice the psalms and hymns dear to them, singing the Lord's song in a strange land.

THE ITALIAN ARBITRATOR COUNT SCLOPIS.

The Italian resident of New York, Mr. V. Botta, writes as follows to the Evening Post in answer to the remarkable statements of Dr. Woolsey, with reference to the Geneva Board of Arbitrators:

In his recent communication on the treaty of Washington, published in the Independent, ex-President Woolsey says in reference to the court of arbitration:—

"It is a pity that the court is constituted just as it is. The non-English speaking members appear to be men of no great standing, and are said to have but a slender knowledge of the English language. There are hundreds of persons in Europe acquainted with law, with English, and with history whose voice would carry tenfold the weight of theirs. In order that the principle of arbitration may make its way in the world, there seems to be need of a more intelligent mode of exercising it than was adopted in the instance before us."

As an Italian enjoying the privileges of American citizenship, permit me to enter my protest against these intimations so disparaging to the arbitrators themselves, as well as to the governments which appointed them, and little calculated to promote the good understanding so necessary to the carrying out of the treaty. Coming, as they do, from so distinguished a publicist, they carry with them much weight, which, taken as an expression of public opinion in America, might increase the difficulties which already threaten the friendly settlement of the question.—This criticism, in advance of any act to justify it, seems both importune and imprudent. But are these arbitrators so insignificant as ex President Woolsey represents them to be? Of those from Switzerland and Brazil I shall not speak, although it may be presumed that they were appointed by those governments with the intention of selecting their best men. But of Count Sclopis, the arbitrator from Italy and president-elect of the court, I can say from personal knowledge that as jurist and statesman he has few equals in Europe or America. His numerous writings on international law, published in several foreign reviews, and particularly in the Revue de Legislation et Jurisprudence of Paris, early attracted the attention of students of law, and in 1845 he was elected corresponding member of the Institute of France in the Academy of Moral and Political Sciences, before which he read several important papers. As jurist, however, his reputation rests principally on his great work, "The History of Italian Legislation from the Fall of the Roman Empire to the Treaty of Vienna," a classic work, which has been translated into French, and which ranks him, as a writer on historical jurisprudence, with Hallam, Savigny and Troplong.—He is also the author of the "History of Legislation in Piedmont," of a historical work on the political and diplomatic relations of England with those of Savoy, and of many essays on important points of international law.

As a statesman Count Sclopis belongs to the liberal school of Piedmontese publicists, embracing the names of Balbo, Gioberti, D'Azeglio and Cavour, who in 1848 placed themselves at the head of the national movement, [illegible] justice in the administration of Count Balbo, the first cabinet organization under the constitution, and the one which declared war against Austria for the cause of national independence. It was under his supervision that the most important organic laws were prepared, and the organization of the courts of justice perfected throughout the state.—He was elected a member of the house of deputies by one of the electoral districts of Turin his native city, and after the defeat of Novara in 1849, he was transferred to the Senate, of which he was for many years vice-President. He was the intimate friend, supporter and counsellor of Cavour in the policy which has made Italy united and free. He is now one of the most prominent members of the Senate, president of the royal commission for investigations in national history, and president of the royal academy of sciences in Turin.

One of the most distinguished Italian orators, an acknowledged authority on international law, the counsellor of the King and of his ministers, with great experience in the administration of public affairs, honored for his lofty character even by his political opponents, like Cavour, an admirer and a student of the English constitution, as well as of American institutions, and like him the friend of liberty and progress, Count Sclopis would seem to combine all the qualifications necessary for an enlightened and impartial decision on the points at issue, and for assisting to lay the foundation of a more Christian policy in international relations. By appointing him to the court of arbitration the government of Victor Emanuel has shown itself fully conscious of the high trust confided to it, and of the responsibility it has assumed toward the two great nations which have manifested such confidence in its friendship and uprightness.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Zion's Herald notes a renewed religious interest in Garland.

A new religious interest is reported at Addison and Indian River.

Seven persons were confirmed at St. Stephen's church in Portland, last Sunday, by Bishop Neely.

Great religious interest is being manifested in the prayer meetings at the Freewill Baptist church in Farmington.

The next meeting of the Baptist Missionary Board will occur at Waterville on Monday the 27th of May.

The Methodist Society in So. Harrison are intending to paint and repair their meeting-house, this season.

Rev. J. Hodgdon, pastor of the Christian Church in So. Harrison, preached his farewell sermon last Sabbath.

Rev. H. Stetson has tendered his resignation to the Baptist church in Waldoboro', to the effect on or before the first of July.

Rev. Mr. Moor, who is to remove from Augusta next week, does not intend to take charge of any society, as pastor, again at present.

Revivals of religion are reported at Addison Point, West Sidney, Kent's Hill, Friendship, South Waldoboro', and many other places in the State.

A good religious interest prevails in West Sidney, under the ministration of Rev. W. E. Foy, an Evangelist, from the eastern part of the State.

On Sunday the rite of confirmation was administered by Bishop Neely to eleven persons at Trinity church, Saco, and to twenty-two at Christ church, Biddeford.

The Free Will Baptist Society at South Parsonfield are about to thoroughly re-model their church building, and have appropriated the sum of $1,800 for that purpose.

The Annual Conference of the Congregational churches of Hancock County, will be held with the church in Bluehill, on the second week in June.

The Sabbath School Conference for the town of Vassalboro and vicinity, has been postponed till the 5th of June; it is to be held at the Baptist church near Seward's Mills.

Rev. Mr. Merry is expected to supply the pulpit of the Center Street Church at Machias for several Sundays, commencing the first Sunday in May.

Rev. Mr. Bell who has been supplying the Congregational Society in Phipsburg for more than four years, closed his labors Sunday. It is understood that he goes to Long Island, New York.

Rev. Mr. Dunbar, assisted by Rev. S. M. Dunton, Methodist, and Rev. Mr. Bissel, Baptist, has continued meetings in Addison.—Some of the converts are among the aged—one 82 years of age, another 63.

By arrangement with the Universalist Society at Mechanic Falls, the Rev. S. S. Davis of Canton, N. Y., will supply their pulpit April 28th and May 5th, with a view to remaining with them for a time.

Rev. F. A. Noble of Pittsburg, formerly of Maine, has asked a dissolution of his pastoral relation with his congregation, to accept a call to the South church, of Brooklyn, L. I.

The time of the engagement of Rev. P. P. Wilcox with the Congregational church, at Bluehill, expired on the 30th of April. It is understood that Mr. W., will probably go to another field of labor.

The Free Baptist Society of Farmington has engaged Ozro Roys, a student in Bates College, to supply their pulpit during the ensuing year. Their church has been closed for some time past.

Rev. R. D. Porter baptized three persons at Baring last Sabbath, making the number of additions to the church since last Spring twenty-four. A gratifying growth and improvement is witnessed in every respect.

Mr. Calvin G. Hill, a graduate of the last class at Bangor Seminary, who has supplied the Congregational church at Waterville during the last eight months, declines a call to become their pastor.

Last Sabbath twelve adults and one child were baptized in the Methodist Church in Hallowell. There were converts from the recent revival. The pastor, Rev. O. M. Cousens, is returned to the society for another year.

The interest has so increased in the prayer meetings of the Young Men's Christian Association at Lewiston that it has been thought advisable to start morning prayer meeting from half past eight to half past nine.

As the fruits of the recent revival in first Congregational Church, Lowell, Mass. Rev. Smith Baker, pastor, 26 have already been received into the church, and over 30 are propounded for the next Communion.

The Congregationalists have one theological student in their seminaries to about ten churches; the Presbyterian Church, (North and South) one to about eleven; the Reformed (Dutch) one to about sixteen.

The Congregational Church has one theological student to 985 communicants; the Protestant Episcopal Church one to 498; the Presbyterian (North and South) one to 1,014; and the Reformed (Dutch) one to 1926.

Last Sunday the Baptist Sunday school of Waterville, raised fifty dollars for the support of a colored boy in Virginia, who is studying for the ministry. Besides this, the school sends yearly eighty dollars to a native preacher in the heathen lands, and raises about fifty dollars for their own use.

The Temperance Reform Club in Gardiner are holding most interesting religious meetings in Johnson's Hall, Sunday evenings; twenty of the serious were at the altar for prayers. Rev. John Allen, of camp-meeting fame, was present, and led the exercises of the evening. Though 77 years of age, he is hale and hearty.

The Gazette says that Rev. Cyrus Tibbetts who closes his pastorate of two years with the First Baptist church of Rockland, next Sunday, will leave behind him the record of a very useful and successful ministry. During his pastorate he has received to the communion of his church thirty-one persons, seventeen of them by baptism and fourteen by letter.

STATE NEWS.

Ivory Lord, a resident of Montville, died very suddenly last Sunday of heart disease.—He was about sixty-four years of age.

There was fifty six deaths the past month in Portland, of which ten were from consumption and six from other lung diseases.

Patrick Kelley of Caribou—forty-three years old, is the first male child ever born on the Aroostook river, and he erected the first house built in New Sweden.

The Ellsworth American says: "The people in an adjoining district (Birch Harbor) are expecting to repair and paint their grave-yard, the coming summer."

Bowdoin Boat Club have purchased the fifty-two feet, six-oared barge of the Ariel Boat Club of Portland, to be used as a practice boat.

The hotel at Waltham owned by William M. Fox, came near being destroyed by fire Wednesday by sparks which flew from the chimney and caught in some rubbish near the barn.

Mr. Daniel Boulter a very old gentleman, died at the residence of his son, in the south-western part of Unity, at the advanced age of 94 years. He was one of the early settlers, having lived in that vicinity about 50 years.

C. S. Hilton of Auburn, proposes if a sufficient consideration is given, to walk a rope stretched from Cowan's Mills to West Pitch. He will also trundle a wheelbarrow over the rope, carry a stove on his back, and cook his dinner while on the middle of the rope.

Mr. A. W. Hoyt has the timber on the spot for building a dam across Fisher Brook in the village of Fort Fairfield. Messrs. Doran & Hoyt are to erect a mill there and put in machinery for the manufacture of small lumber and wood work.

The church at Biddeford Pool has been presented with a fine altar, by Thomas McBride, Esq. This altar is one hardly to be excelled in point of elaboration in New England. It is made of black walnut and finely carved and ornamented, and was constructed at a cost of $500.

A petition to the Governor and Council for the pardon and release from State prison of Mr. William Kingsbury, whose buildings were destroyed by fire, with others, at South China on Friday night last, is in circulation in Augusta and the eastern part of the county, receiving numerous signatures.

One evening last week, as Mrs. Cyrus Fellows of Augusta, was making a call at the house of Mr. H. U. Wells on Flagg street, by mistake she opened the cellar door instead of that to the sitting room and was precipitated down stairs to the bottom of the cellar, receiving quite severe, though not dangerous injuries.

The Gardiner Journal says: "We are told that orders came on Monday, to knock off all the workmen in Augusta in the employ of the Spragues. This is a very severe blow to Augusta, and it will be felt in her sister cities. We hear it is said that Gov. Sprague says he can buy English goods, cheaper than he can manufacture goods here, and this is why he shuts down."

A sad loss by fire last Saturday, occurred to a Mr. Wilder, between Pembroke and Dennysville. Near the middle of the day, whilst a high wind was raging, fire was discovered in his dwelling house, which, together with his barns and other out-buildings, were all laid in ashes in a very short time. Nothing of any consequence was saved, so rapid was the fire. No insurance.

On Wednesday as the long-shoremen were engaged in unloading the cargo of the steamer "Franconia" at Galt's Wharf, Portland, two men named John Cummings and John Feeney, were hit by a hogshead of molasses, as it was swinging round in the tackles, and knocked overboard. They fell a distance of some fifteen feet striking on a stick of timber in the water. Cummings had three ribs broken, one of which penetrated his lungs, and he is not expected to live. He has a wife and six children. Feeney is an unmarried man about thirty years old and was badly cut in the back of the head and blood flowed from his ears. It is thought however he will survive.

Republican District Convention

The Republicans of the 4th Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Aroostook, Penobscot, and Piscataquis, are requested to assemble by their delegates at the CITY HALL, in Bangor,

On WEDNESDAY, the 15th day of May next, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of electing two delegates to the National Republican Convention to be holden at Philadelphia, on the 5th of June next, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said Convention.

Every Town and Plantation is entitled to one delegate, and each town that in 1868 cast 50 votes for President Grant, to two delegates and for every additional 50 votes an additional delegate, and for each fraction of 25 or more votes, another delegate.

THE MOUNTAIN BRINGS FORTH.

The great convocation of self appointed reformers who were to gather at Cincinnati for the calm and unselfish consideration of the public welfare, has been on exhibition before the country for several days, and after such a series of political bargainings and caucus trickeries as were never before witnessed outside of the Tammany primaries, the sharpest convention jobbers have won the stakes, and Horace Greeley is hoisted upon a stultifying platform amid the curses of one faction and the smiles of the other, while the incongruous spectacle of the oracle of Protection mounted in front with the Missouri Revenue Reformer, Gratz Brown, astride of the crupper, has already provoked a loud guffaw from one end of the country to the other. Well may the outbargained philanthropists of Cincinnati exclaim: "After all these pangs, what is this which has been brought forth?"

In the nomination of Horace Greeley and his consent to stand upon a platform which stifles the first article of his political faith and directly assails some of the most important of the principles he has hitherto advocated, the last thin disguise is swept away, and the movement stands out in its true colors, as an attempt to wreak the vengeance of disappointed office-seekers upon President Grant by defeating the Republican party if possible by division. The pretense of a desire for reform has been laughed to scorn during the bickerings and traffickings of these champions of purity, and the country has been disgusted to note that amid the disgraceful scrambling of these modern reformers the ermine of the Supreme Court has again been dragged through the slime of back door caucusing. The whole affair, which, under the lead of Schurz and the prospective championship of Adams, assumed the character of a political sarcasm, sinks with the nomination of Greeley, to the level of a farce. One can hardly realize the possibility that seven hundred men could respond to Schurz's vehement demand for a "statesman" by presenting that genius of discord with such an elephant as the vacillating, gullible, office-mad old gentleman of The Tribune. The Republican party may be congratulated that it has at last got rid of one of its heaviest loads, and if those who have got him can get the bargain off their hands by any method short of another political raffle, they will be fortunate indeed.

What is put forth as a platform, is worthy of the hodge-podge assemblage which constructed it and of the boomerang ticket at its head. What there is that is commendable is but the stolen thunder of the Republican party, the doctrines having been more frankly enunciated and many of them gloriously exemplified by its administration; while every sentence which can claim a different parentage is a blow in the face of their candidate. Equal and exact justice, the maintenance of the Union, and the sanctity of the Constitutional amendments, are matters which are somewhat associated with the history of the Republican party, and are but the mockery of an echo, coming from Cincinnati. The demand for amnesty has been anticipated by the President whom they denounce, and a Republican Congress has carried its magnanimity towards treason to the very limit of national safety. In making this bid for rebel votes the Cincinnatians offer aid and comfort to the Ku-Klux of the South by denouncing the Government for protecting the lives of its citizens, and then demonstrate their utter hypocrisy by hauling for Executive one of the most earnest champions of the Enforcement act. The platitudes about civil service reform are but the vapor of words compared with the practical work of the President who has struck the first and heaviest blows at the traditional abuses of patronage, and Horace Greeley, with his henchmen Fenton and "Rocky Moore," will hardly inspire confidence in the new reform crusade. The public credit is doing pretty well at present, and the May Day bulletin, which no doubt disgusted the "reformers," was a very palpable indication that Mr. Greeley's services are not essential to the payment of our honest debts or the financial prosperity of the nation.

The vague recognition of the soldiers and sailors, by men who are bargaining for alliance with those who were their bitterest foes in the years of blood and trial, will be measured as to its sincerity by the vilification heaped upon the representative soldier of the nation, the great chieftain who has never been forgiven for Donelson, Vicksburg and Appomattox by the Northern and Southern foes of the Republic.

The so-called "Address to the people" is simply a tirade of abuse of the President who has won the endorsement of the people, and an insult to the honesty and intelligence of the overwhelming majority of the Republican party. It is neither statesmanlike nor respectable, but assails the ears of the American people with the shriekings of vituperation. It has all the bitterness of personal hatred, all the jealousy of disappointed ambition and all the falsity of a direct arraignment of the public integrity. No tolerance here, for the great mass of honest Republican voters who are satisfied that the administration has been worthy of confidence; no hesitation in reiterating base charges which have already recoiled on the heads of the slanderers. It is the voice of the petty caucuses where principles were traded for votes under the decoy standard of reform, and its true interpretation is found in reading between the lines the history of the past three days and nights of disgraceful scrambling for prominence.

The people will gauge the purpose of this cabal at the outset. Without the shadow of a hope of electing their candidates, this Cincinnati bolt is a deliberate attempt to defeat the Republican party. The Democrats will hail its action with applause, as a means of weakening their opponents, and we must rank the traitors at once among our foes and go to work to sink them in the same political grave. The Cincinnati Commercial gives a Democratic account of the bargain between Brown, the Blairs and Greeley, and it will prove that very few Republicans will trust to such a combination.

The upshot of this movement is as ludicrous as the apostacy of its leaders is revolting. Greeley has secured the object of his ambition, will be the laughing-stock of the nation, and General Grant will be re-elected in No-...

The utterly unrepresentative character of the delegations at Cincinnati, where in some instances one man cast the electoral vote of a State, and none of the voters spoke for any one but themselves, renders absurd the mass of figures sent us, giving the details of every ballot by State, and we have not been willing to waste either time or space upon them.

JOHN STUART MILL ON ARBITRATION.—The New York Tribune publishes the following letter from John Stuart Mill, in which that eminent British scholar and political economist, expresses similar views to those which we have maintained from the outset with reference to the Geneva Arbitration.—Without discussing the merits of the pleas presented on either side, the Tribunal is undoubtedly the proper place for adjudicating disputed points and the particular shape in which the United States has seen fit to present its case, affords no excuse for a repudiation of the compact by Great Britain. Mr. Mill writes:

AVIGNON, March 24, 1872.

DEAR SIR,—It is perfectly true that the unfortunate difference in the interpretation put upon the Treaty of Washington by the two parties does appear to me a proper subject for reference to arbitration; and to the very arbitrators provided by the Treaty, unless the parties prefer, and can agree upon, some other tribunal. If there is any value at all in the principle of international arbitration, there is surely no subject to which that principle can be more fittingly applied than to determining the true sense of an international engagement. We may regret that this method of settling national differences should be subjected to so severe a trial at so early a period of its history; but we should not be therefore justified in repudiating it in one of the very cases which require it most. I am, dear Sir, yours very respectively,

J. S. MILL.

THE WRIGHT INDIAN FRAUDS. The papers detailing the history of the Wright Indian frauds, called for early in the session, were sent to the House Tuesday and will be referred to the Indian committee. They are very voluminous and contain an exhaustive report covering the whole subject, by the special commission from the Interior Department, and also presenting many important facts not hitherto known. The proposed arbitration of the matter has substantially failed, owing to the unwillingness of the Indian delegations to agree to it, and proceedings will be instituted against Wright to recover some of the funds lost to the government. Wright was lately elected a Liberal Republican delegate from Washington to Cincinnati.

THE INDIRECT CLAIMS. The Boston Journal's special correspondent says: "The statement sent hence by Associated Press in relation to the position of this Government on the Alabama claims treaty was authorized by the State Department, and it therefore indicates the position of the Government on this question. It does not look much as though the demand or a decision on the question of indirect damages had been withdrawn or was to be withdrawn. Prominent members of Congress say the statement published is just what was always understood by them to be the attitude of the Government. It sets at rest all the talk of an ignominious back down on our part."

OUR RELATIONS WITH SPAIN. A Washington despatch says there is high authority for the statement that our relations with Spain are not in the critical condition reported, and that Minister Sickles takes out no peremptory instructions to demand his passports from the Spanish government. The adoption of the Houard resolution by the House induced the State Department to intrust to Gen. Sickles the discretionary authority to ask for his passports in case, and only in case, the Spanish authorities, after a full presentation of the facts, shall refuse to accede to the demands of this government, release Dr. Houard, and in other respects observe the proper obligations toward the United States. Except upon this alternative, Gen. Sickles will continue at his post until relieved by his successor, during the summer. The previous requests of the Spanish government for the recall of Gen. Sickles may induce a readiness on its part to give him his passports, though in any event it is the intention of this government to continue a charge d'affaires at Madrid, through whom all business will be transacted as usual, and friendly relations sustained.

GERMANS LEAVING EN MASSE FOR AMERICA. The German correspondent of the London Guardian says a curious phenomenon is to be seen in the northwest and west of Prussia. An emigration mania is in full progress. In Schleswig-Holstein it assumes extraordinary dimensions; whole villages are being emptied, the people are selling houses and land at ruinous prices,—there is a wholesale exodus. Emigration agents are busy shipping off the people, the greater and superior part to America, and the lesser part to Queensland. Another correspondent writes: "A village with good lands in my district has only three families left in it, and they go in a week or two." This mania is fast spreading to Posen and East Prussia. Hundreds camp out at the railway station, waiting for the trains to convey them away.

FREE TEA AND COFFEE. The President having signed the free tea and coffee bill, all doubt upon that portion of the tariff question is thus finally at rest. The celerity of the House in passing the bill was a genuine surprise to all parties, the most sanguine friends of the bill not expecting such utter lack of opposition and almost of concern in the matter. The whole business would not have occupied over five minutes had not General Farnsworth called for a division on the Senate amendments and a separate vote by tellers. The only count by the opponents of the bill was on the concurrence in the amendment fixing the time for the bill to take effect, against which there were only eleven votes,—those of Freeman, Clarke, Farnsworth, Stevenson, Burchard, Merrick, Brooks, Beveridge, Boles, Cotton and Smith of Ohio. The opinion among the members as to the effect of free tea and coffee upon the tariff bill is diverse, but there is substantial agreement in the belief that it improves very much the prospect of adjournment on the twenty-ninth of May.

NATIONAL WORKINGMEN'S CONVENTION. The Committee of the Central Workingmen's Union of New York has called a National Convention in New York the 23d of May, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. They lay down as their platform the reduction of the national debt, the maintenance of a high tariff; an unconditional surrender of the Alabama claims by England or war to the knife; the enforcement of the eight-hour law; a reduction of the rate of interest on money; the encouragement of American ship-building; the entrustment of mails solely to American ships, and open and direct sympathy with nations struggling against oppression. All such struggling people they declare will be assisted by the workingmen of America at all hazards. The Committee profess Republican principles and no doubt is entertained as to their intention to nominate General Grant at the Convention.

In the British House of Commons Wednesday night, Earl Granville, in reply to an inquiry from Earl Derby, said that the reply of...

THE THIRD DAY—SCHURZ EXPLAINS

CINCINNATI May 3 The convention was called to order at ten minutes past ten. The reading of the journal was dispensed with and at the suggestion of the Iowa delegation the chair stated that the statement in the morning papers pretending to give a dispatch from him (Schurz) to a candidate was utterly untrue

TALK ENOUGH—BALLOT CALLED FOR.

Mr Gilmore of Mo, offered a resolution that when the convention reaches the point of balloting for candidates there shall be no formal presentation of candidates, but the convention proceed to vote Mr. Dexter of Ill sustained the proposition and wanted to proceed to business and avoid mere personal eulogies The resolution was carried

THE PLATFORM

Horace White, chairman of the Committee on Platform, reported the following resolutions which had been unanimously adopted by the Committee —

We the Liberal Republicans of the United States in convention assembled at Cincinnati proclaim the following principles as essential to a just government —

1st We recognize the equality of all men before the law and hold that it is the duty of the government in its dealings with the people to mete out equal and exact justice to all, of whatever nationality, race, color or persuasion religious or political

2d We pledge ourselves to maintain the Union of these States emancipation and enfranchisement and to oppose any re-opening of the questions settled by the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments of the Constitution

3d We demand the immediate and absolute removal of all disabilities imposed on account of the rebellion which was finally subdued seven years ago believing that universal amnesty will result in a complete pacification in all sections of the country

4th Local self government with impartial suffrage will guard the rights of all citizens more securely than any centralized power — The public welfare requires the supremacy of the civil over the military authority and freedom of the person under the protection of the habeas corpus. We demand for the individual the largest liberty consistent with public order for the State self government, and for the nation a return to the methods of peace and the constitutional limitation of power

5th The civil service of the Government has become a mere instrument of partizan tyranny and personal ambition and an object of selfishness It is a scandal and reproach upon free institutions and breeds a demoralization dangerous to the perpetuity of a Republican government.

6th We therefore regard a thorough reform of the civil service as one of the most pressing necessities of the hour. That honesty, capacity and fidelity constitute the only valid claims to public employment. That the offices of the government cease to be a matter of arbitrary favoritism and patronage and that a public station may again become a post of honor and it is imperatively required that no President shall be a candidate for re-election

7th We demand a system of federal taxation which shall not necessarily interfere with the industry of the people and which shall provide the means necessary to pay the expenses of the government economically administered, the pensions, the interest on the public debt, and a moderate reduction annually of the principal thereof and recognizing that there are in our midst honest but irreconcilable differences of opinion with regard to the respective systems of Protection and Free Trade, we remit the discussion of the subject to the people in their Congressional districts and to the decision of Congress thereon, wholly free from Executive interference or dictation

8th The public credit must be sacredly maintained and we denounce repudiation in every form

9th A speedy return to specie payments is demanded alike by the highest consideration of commercial morality and honest government.

10th We remember with gratitude the heroism and sacrifices of the soldiers and sailors of the republic, and no act of ours shall ever detract from their justly earned fame or the full rewards of their patriotism

11th We are opposed to all further grants of lands to railroads or other corporations — The public domain should be held sacred to actual settlers

12th We hold that it is the duty of the government in its intercourse with foreign nations to cultivate their friendship by treating them on fair and equal terms, regarding it alike dishonorable either to demand what is not right or to submit to what is wrong

13th For the promotion and success of these vital principles and the support of the candidates nominated by this convention, we invite and cordially welcome the co-operation of all citizens without regard to previous political affiliations

(Signed) Horace White, chairman of the committee on resolutions, G. R. Thurston, Secretary

Amid great cries of "Question" overwhelming a few who tried to get the floor, the chair put the question and the report was adopted with loud and continued cheering — The chair announced the vote unanimous.

THE ADDRESS OF THE "OUTS" WHO WANT TO BE "INS"

The following is the address of the Committee on Resolutions —

The administration now in power has rendered itself guilty of a wanton disregard of the laws It has acted as if the laws had no binding force only for those who govern, it has thus struck a blow at the fundamental principles of constitutional government and the liberties of the citizens. The President of the United States has openly used the powers and opportunities of his high office for the promotion of personal ends, he has kept notoriously corrupt and unworthy men in places of power and responsibility to the detriment of the public interest, he has used the public service of the government as a machinery of partizan and personal influence and interfered with tyrannical arrogance in the political affairs of states and municipalities, he has rewarded with influential and lucrative offices men who had acquired his favor by valuable presents, thus stimulating the demoralization of political life by his conspicuous example he has shown himself deplorably unequal to the task imposed upon him by the necessities of the country, and culpably careless of the responsibilities of his high office

Partizans of administration assuming to be the Republican party and controlling the organization have attempted to justify such wrongs and palliate such abuses To the end of maintaining partizan ascendancy they have stood in the way of necessary investigations and indispensable reforms, pretending that no serious fault could be found with the present administration of public affairs, thus seeking to blind the eyes of the people. They have kept alive the passions and resentments of the late civil war to use them for their own advantage, they have resorted to arbitrary means in direct conflict with the organized law instead of appealing to the better instincts and latent patriotism of the southern people, by restoring them those rights the enjoyment of which are indispensable for a successful administration of their local affairs and would tend to move patriotic and hopeful national feeling. They have degraded themselves and the name of their party, once justly entitled to the confidence of the nation, by the base sycophancy to the dispenser of executive power and patronage, unworthy of republican freemen they have sought to stifle the voice of just criticism, to stifle the moral sense of the people and to subjugate public opinion by tyrannical party discipline. They are striving to maintain themselves in authority for selfish ends by an unscrupulous use of power which rightfully belongs to the people and should be employed only in the service of the country! Believing an organization thus led and controlled can no longer be of service to the best interests of the republic, we have resolved to make an independent appeal to the sound judgment, conscience and patriotism of the American people.

[illegible] TOO OR W[illegible]—BALLOTING [illegible]

The next business in order was stated by the chair to be the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency, without a formal presentation of candidates. The roll of States was then called

BROWN GOES IN FOR GREELEY.

Before the vote was announced Gratz Brown, by unanimous consent, took the stand and thanked his friends for their support of himself but withdrew his name and asked his friends to support Horace Greeley (Great cheers with many persistent hisses) The chair arose to announce the vote when a Missouri delegate rose to a question of privilege and asked to change his vote. Considerable various delegations asking to change their votes and contention arising in some of them, notably Kentucky as to what the changes among themselves really were. Cassius M Clay announced Kentucky's vote changed 5 from Brown to Greeley and one from Brown to Adams New Jersey changed some of her votes

THE FIRST BALLOT

The chair announced the result of the first ballot as follows Whole number of votes 714, necessary to a choice 358 Adams had 203, Greeley 147, Trumbull 108, Brown 98, Davis 92½, Curtin 62, Chase 2½, Sumner 1

On this ballot New York gave Greeley 66 and Adams 2, Massachusetts Adams 22 and Trumbull 4, Ohio Adams 43, Illinois Trumbull 21 and Davis 21 No choice was made

SECOND BALLOT.

At the second ballot the whole number of votes was 714, necessary to a choice 358.— Adams had 243, Greeley 239, Trumbull 148, Davis 81, Brown 2, Chase 1 No choice. California changed her six from Davis to Greeley, which left Greeley 245, Davis 75

"SOLD"

When Missouri was called and had given Greeley an increase of 7 votes and gave Trumbull 16 instead of the 3 in the first ballot, a Missouri delegate rose and exclaimed excitedly "We are sold but not delivered." (Laughter and applause) All gains for Adams and Greeley were vociferously cheered by their respective partizans.

THIRD BALLOT

At the end of the third call the vote stood. Adams 264, Greeley 258, Trumbull 156, Davis 44, Brown 2. No choice

FOURTH BALLOT—CHANGING VOTES.

On the fourth ballot, in Indiana Adams and Greeley each gained 1, and Trumbull lost 2 in Iowa Adams gained 5 and Greeley lost 2, in Maryland Adams gained 6, Greeley lost 4 and Trumbull lost 2; in Mississippi Adams gained 3 from Greeley, in Missouri Greeley gained 3 from Adams, in New York Adams gained 3, Greeley lost 2; in North Carolina Trumbull gained 3 from Adams, in Pennsylvania Adams and Trumbull each gained 1, Greeley and Davis each lost 1; in Tennessee Trumbull gained 1 from Greeley, Adams gained 1 from Trumbull, in West Virginia Greeley gained 2, in Wisconsin Adams gained 2 from Greeley

The footing at the close of the call on the fourth ballot was Adams 279, Greeley 251, Trumbull 141, Davis 51, Brown 2 No choice

CURTIN WITHDRAWN—PENNSYLVANIA RETIRES TO CONSULT.

Vice President Julian took the chair. Mr Casey of the District of Columbia offered a resolution giving a vote to the territories, which was tabled

Mr McClure withdrew Curtin's name and asked leave for the Pennsylvania delegation to retire, which was granted and proceedings were suspended until the return of the absent delegations. It was understood that Pennsylvania would go to Greeley as soon as they have satisfied their obligations to Davis, or whenever it is necessary to defeat Adams

FIFTH BALLOT

On the fifth ballot Adams had 309, Greeley 258, Trumbull 91, Davis 30, Brown 2, Chase 24 No choice

Adams gains 5 in Delaware, 4 in Indiana, 10 in Kansas, 1 in Pennsylvania, 1 in Missouri, 3 in North Carolina, 6 in Vermont and 4 in West Virginia. Greeley gained 3 in Indiana, 4 in Louisiana, 2 in North Carolina, 1 in Pennsylvania, and 2 in Wisconsin. Trumbull had a few scattering gains and losses.— South Carolina gave Chase 14 and Virginia Chase 9 The announcement of Mr. Adams' vote was received with cheers.

THE SIXTH BALLOT—EXCITEMENT AND CONFUSION.

The sixth ballot was called amid a scene of great confusion Mississippi asked leave to retire for consultation. A motion for a recess of 20 minutes was made (cries of "No! No!" "Sit down.") The motion was lost by an overwhelming vote.

GAINS FOR GREELEY—CHEERS AND HISSES

On the sixth ballot Greeley gained 6 in Georgia and in Indiana 9, but the announcement was received with great cheering from one side and hisses on the other Greeley also gained 3 in Kansas, 1 in Louisiana, 2 in Michigan, 6 in Nebraska, 12 in North Carolina, 9 in Tennessee 3 in Vermont, 3 in Virginia, 4 in W. Virginia. Adams made some gains and some losses. He gained 6 in Missouri. Massachusetts gave her 4 Trumbull votes to Chase.

ILLINOIS RETIRES.

The Illinois delegation having retired the convention awaited its return. When returned to their seats the Illinois chairman announced 27 for Adams; (cheers) 14 for Greeley and Trumbull 1.

GREELEY AHEAD—WILD CONFUSION.

The chair declared the result Adams 324, Greeley 332, Trumbull 19, Davis 6, Chase 32, Parker 1. Before the vote was formally announced Minnesota changed 10 from Trumbull to Greeley. Various States changed votes but there was a scene of such confusion and noise it was impossible for the reporters to hear

PENNSYLVANIA WHEELS—BABEL LET LOOSE

Mr McClure Penn, to 50 for Greeley and 6 for Davis (great cheers.) Indiana changed to 27 for Adams A stampede of changes here occurred, but the noise and confusion rendered it impossible to hear details Illinois changed solid to Greeley except one delegate who insisted that his vote should be recorded for Trumbull.

GREELEY NOMINATED—NOT UNANIMOUS.

The chair finally announced the whole vote to be 714, necessary to a choice 358 Adams had 187; Greeley 482 Mr Casement moved the nomination be made unanimous but the motion was declared lost as there were many "noes" before the vote was announced The chair stated that the Sec'ys said it was impossible to read the vote by States as the clerks would only note the many changes which had occurred without recording the States in which the changes occurred Mr Cochrane inquired if Mr Greeley had the majority. The chair said yes and therefore was nominated as candidate for the Presidency by this convention

On the sixth ballot Maine gave Adams 14 Massachusetts Adams 22 Chase 4.

THE SECOND FIDDLE

On motion it was ordered to proceed to ballot for Vice President. The roll was called partially, when Illinois retired to consult On continuing the call, Governor Koerner announced that Trumbull would not accept as Vice President under any circumstances An Iowa delegate nominated J D Cox, the man who was "too pure to stay in the sinkhole of Washington" Illinois offered Cassius M Clay 21 votes, when Clay rose and declined and urged his friends to vote for Brown. Illinois then gave Brown 42. Indiana gave George W Julian 28, and Maine gave Julian 14. Massachusetts gave Julian 22 and Trumbull 2 The result of the first ballot was 702 votes, 352 for a choice. Brown had 237 Trumbull 158, Julian 134½, Walker of Va 84½, Tipton 8, Cox 25, Clay 34, Scoville 12 No choice.

An Ohio delegate stated that Cox's name was not before the convention

A motion to nominate Brown by acclamation was voted down. Gov Koerner produced a telegram from Trumbull positively declining.

On the second ballot Palmer's name was withdrawn Maine gave 14 for Julian, Massachusetts 22 for Julian, 4 for Walker — Whole number, 657, necessary for choice 349 Brown had 434, Julian, 175; Walker, 75; Tipton, 3, Palmer, 8, and B. Gratz Brown was declared the nominee. A motion to make the nomination unanimous was carried, though with some dissenting votes.

Mr. Cochrane moved that the President and Vice President of the Convention be a Committee to announce to the candidates their nominations.

A resolution of thanks to Cincinnati for hospitality was moved and carried. Thanks also to the officers of the Convention were adopted.

The roll of States was called for the members of the National Committee, the spectators rapidly left the hall and the convention adjourned sine die.

AN EVIL DENOUNCED At a meeting of the Penobscot County Medical Association held on the 1st instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted —

Resolved, That we regard the procuring of abortion as a crime, unless demanded for the purpose of saving human life; and we consider it a duty, as citizens and physicians, to condemn and discourage the practice.

Resolved, That we not only denounce this traffic in human life, but will strive to infuse into the public mind a proper understanding of the fearful and inevitable punishment which follows this violation of the physical law

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the daily papers.

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION. The Maine delegation has agreed upon the following named gentlemen as Corporators of the State of Maine for the Centennial exhibition at Philadelphia in 1876: At large, Abner Coburn, Philander J. MARINE DISASTERS. The number of vessels belonging to, or bound to or from ports in the United States, reported totally lost or missing during the month of April just past, is 58, of which [illegible]

[illegible] cargoes, is estimated at $610,000. Of these, seven vessels hailed from Maine ports—the barques "Samuel Larrabee" of Bangor, missing; "Andaman" of Bath, foundered, and "C. V. Minot" of Bath, wrecked, and the schooners "Nevada" and "Georgia Deering" of Portland, "Ben. Franklin" of Orland and "T. A. Ward" of Machias—all missing. Besides these, a number of vessels were lost last month, which though hailing from ports in other States were built in Maine—the barque "Sancho Panza" of New York, missing, was built at Belfast in 1864; the brig "John Chrystal" of Philadelphia, abandoned, was built in Cherryfield in 1859, the schooner "Josiah Hardy" of Chatham, wrecked, was built at Kennebunk in 1871, and the schooner "Othello" of Portsmouth, abandoned, was built at York in 1865 The schooner "Zeyla," abandoned, though hailing from New York, was mostly owned in this State.

THE OLDTOWN CAR SHOPS The E. & N. A Railway car-shops at Oldtown, are undergoing great improvements in size as well as conveniences for the building of cars. Although an addition of sixty feet has been made to the building intended for the construction of cars, and an addition of the same size is being built on to the wood-work shop The Company also intend to make a considerable addition to the side-track, used for the less important repair of cars. John H Brown, master car builder of the road, is superintending in person the construction of the additional improvements of shops as well as the building of the new cars, and the repairing of the old rolling stock, a task which although almost too much for one man, is well done. The Company intends to put in their shop a twenty horse-power engine, which will carry the machinery that is now absolutely necessary for wood-work, as the demand for more cars rapidly increases owing to the daily traffic of the road Mr. Brown has received several calls for engagements in other States, but it is to be hoped he will remain in the present situation, as it would be very difficult to find a man better adapted to fill his place.

BUCKSPORT AND THE E. M. C. SEMINARY. Mr. Editor: A few visitors, lay and clerical, are enjoying the hospitalities of this beautiful village, drawn hither by the anniversary of the East Maine Conference Seminary. It was a happy choice that planted it here, nature has done much and art will do more,— The grounds are being graded, trees are to be planted, and when completed this be a lovely spot for the devotee of letters The Spring Term has just closed with a creditable display of eloquence by the ladies as well as the gentlemen. The lecture before the Literary Society on Tuesday evening, by Rev. C Stone of Thomaston, was like himself—strong and sensible. His theme was "On the choice of an Occupation."

Prof. M. T. Arey closes his labors as Principal with this term. He has made many friends during his stay, and will carry with him to his new fields of labor the high esteem and sincere regards of those who knew him here. A man of moral worth and of fine culture, he cannot fail to find an honorable recognition anywhere. The students passed a series of resolutions indicative of their love and respect for him The Summer term, to begin May 20th, will be under the charge of Rev George Forsythe of the Wyoming Conference, Pennsylvania, (brother of Rev. Wm Forsythe, pastor of the Congregational church in this place) who has been elected Principal He comes well recommended and the friends of the school are hoping for renewed prosperity from his energy. Larger facilities for self boarding are to be furnished this term the Faculty will spare no effort to make the school a live and desirable place. By the generosity of the Hon. Hiram Ruggles of Carmel and a number of the citizens of Bucksport the Seminary has recently been furnished with a valuable set of meteorological instruments. At the Trustee meeting last Tuesday these kind friends received a vote of thanks.

However noble it may be to be doing a man's work in the world, as we caught the echo of happy voices and the light of sunny faces at every turn, we could but sincerely regret that such pleasant hours of student life would not longer stay. Long live Bucksport Seminary. W. W. M.

ANOTHER JACK SHEPPARD.

EXPLOITS OF FREDERICK MCKINNEY IN DEXTER.—HE "GOES IN" FOR PLUNDER AND GETS INTO TROUBLE THEREBY—HIS ARREST, TRIAL AND ESCAPE—NOW SEARCHING FOR THE WOODBINE.

For the past three weeks Dexter has been favored with the presence of one Frederick McKinney, who says he hails from Bangor, and who seems to be troubled with an "itching palm," he having shown a propensity to become possessed of other people's property without asking their consent

A few days after his advent in Dexter, Mr Greenlief, a carriage maker who employed McKinney, and who slept in the same room with him, missed from his pocket a wallet containing about $75. A warrant was procured and the person of McKinney searched, the money being found upon him Mr Greenlief condoned this offence, McKinney giving promises of future good behavior.

A few nights after this affair occurred, a lot of clothes were missed from a line in the yard of Mr Smart. No clue was obtained to the thief until after the robbery of the store of N. Dustin & Co, which occurred last Tuesday night, the store being entered through the cellar window, and a lot of goods and money taken—in all amounting to about $115— McKinney was suspected of this crime, and a search of the shop where he worked revealed the goods taken by him, all nicely packed in a keg which was headed up and buried in a pile of shavings which had collected in the basement of the shop. The money taken from Dustin and Co. was found concealed in a stable connected with the house where McKinney boarded, and a search of his valise also revealed the clothes which had been stolen from Mr Smart's premises. Among the goods taken from Dustin & Co was a dark lantern, which he probably intended should furnish light for future operations. Some other losses are also attributed to him. The questionable action of the town (controlled by the rural element) in refusing to provide a night watch for the village, has given characters like McKinney an excellent opportunity for their depredations.

McKinney was examined on Thursday before Trial Justice McCrillis, and was bound over to await the action of the Grand Jury, in the sum of $1000 for the robbery from Dustin & Co., and $100 for the theft from Mr. Smart. In default [illegible] committed to the county jail [illegible] officer Sheppard started with him [illegible]

[illegible] posing he would of course be safe there, but McKinney seeing the side door wide open when just beyond Hermon, made a desperate rush and a leap for liberty He was handcuffed and the train was running at the rate of twenty miles an hour, and those who saw him leap expected he would be killed, or at least break some of his limbs, but when the engineer, who was quickly notified by the signal line, brought the train to a stand-still and the officer and some of the train men went back, nothing could be seen of this second Jack Sheppard who, it seems, must have alighted all right, and collecting himself had run into the woods At last accounts he had not been captured

We understand that McKinney has been in jail several times and informed a man on the train before he jumped, that he 'wasn't going back again by a —— sight." Time will show

BOARD OF TRADE AND MANUFACTURES

ADJOURNED MEETING—REPORTS OF COMMITTEES—LIST OF OFFICERS, DISCUSSIONS, ETC.

The adjourned meeting of the Board of Trade and Manufactures held in City Hall last evening, was called to order by the Chairman, Mr. G. W Merrill. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Secretary, Mr. J. C White.

The report of the Committee appointed to nominate a board of officers was read by Dr. G W Ladd, and named the following gentlemen Geo W. Pickering, President, R. S Prescott, Thomas N Egery, D R Stockwell, Andrew Wiggin, J. C. White, N C Ayer, John Holbrook, Vice Presidents, S C Hatch, Treasurer; Dr. B F. Tefft, Secretary, W T Pearson, G W. Stevens, E B Patten, G R. Lancaster, C. W Roberts, M. Schwartz, C S. Brown, G. W Merrill and G. W Ladd, Executive Committee On motion of Capt J. D. Warren the report was accepted.

As the Constitution provides that the officers shall be elected by ballot, quite a discussion ensued as to whether the accepting of the Committee's report elected the officers Dr. Tefft gave as his view that the association could not legally ballot, as the signers of the Constitution had not yet paid the three dollars required by it as an initiation fee Capt Warren thought that the acceptance of the report elected the officers Dr Ladd's view was that a ballot must be taken A motion was carried to the effect that the Chairman notify the officers of their election, proposing to meet next Tuesday evening, but this was finally changed to another time mentioned below.

A motion was carried that the Chairman appoint a Committee to make arrangements for securing rooms and report at the next meeting This Committee consists of the following Messrs J P Bass, G W. Ladd, and M. Schwartz

The question of by-laws was then broached and provoked much discussion. The Constitution as far as pertaining to the matter, was read, and a motion was made to amend so as to proceed at the next meeting to draw up a code of by-laws Quite a spirited discussion was carried on some being in favor of leaving the matter to a Committee, whose report should be ratified by the Association while others advocated leaving it in the hands of all as a Committee. It was finally decided that a Committee of five be nominated by the Chairman to examine the Constitution and propose amendments, reporting the same at the next meeting The Committee consists of Messrs G W Ladd, O H. Ingalls, S S. Patten, J S Jenness, J. D. Warren.

The meeting finally adjourned to meet Friday evening, May 10th.

LATEST NEWS IN BRIEF

It is now believed in France that the movement of Don Carlos in Spain is a failure.

News has been received in London of the foundering of the American schooner Brooks in Long 63°. All on board lost.

Advices from Zanzibar of the 15th of April, state that the island has been visited by a terrible hurricane and 150 vessels of all classes sunk or stranded on the coast The town of Zanzibar was very badly damaged and the loss is estimated at millions

Information has been received from Berlin with reference to what has been said there about the arms investigation by the American Senate. No remonstrance has been made as to our conduct in the sale of arms and there is no fear that the German government will revive the subject or make complaint.

The fortnightly official report at Havana states that 240 insurgents were killed, 67 prisoners taken and 300 presented themselves for submission, while 18 Spaniards were killed and 131 wounded.

The French government has decided to court-martial Bazaine, but wishes to suppress the report of the investigation, fearing that the publication of the correspondence between Bazaine and Prince Frederick Charles will prejudice pending negotiations for the liberation of French territory The Committee insist on the trial of Gen Wimpffen, hoping thereby to expose Napoleon's conduct at Sedan

In the case of John Hodgkins of Nobleboro, who has been on trial for an outrage alleged to have been committed on Caroline A. Davis of Somerville, October 5, 1870, the jury, after being out all Tuesday night, returned a verdict of guilty of fornication. He was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $100. The case was managed by County Attorney Farrington for the State, and Hon. Joseph Baker of Augusta, for Hodgkins.

A DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE —Ladies whose faces are clouded by superficial discolorations and who have resolved to try HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM as a remedy, have no idea of the welcome surprise they will receive from their mirrors after a few applications of that healthful purifier of the complexion. If at all excitable, they will scream with rapture on beholding the change, whether the blemish it is desired to remove be sallowness, blotches, pimples, freckles, roughness or an unnatural pallor, it is bound to disappear under the tonic operation of this wonderful agent. To say that the blemish disappears, does not, however, convey any idea of the effect produced by this celebrated beautifier The unsightly tinge, whether diffused over the whole countenance or in spots, or patches, is replaced by a uniform, pearly bloom to which no description can do justice.

LIVERWORTS.

They were laughing in the meadow,
They are singing in the dell
In the woody hills [illegible]
The bi[illegible] eyed beauties dwell
And unto th[illegible] who love them
A pleasant tale they tell

They speak of sunny weather
Of birds and babbling brooks,
Of walks within the forest glens,
And rest within its no ks,
And many a dreamy fancy
Recorded not in books

From fallen leaves and withered
They mischievously peep
And laugh at later flowers
Unwakened from their sleep
With tenderly they guard them
And loving vigil keep

In modest maiden beauty
Some blush along the way,
While others deck the meadows,
Or by the fountains stray
In white or blue habiliments
To greet the April day

They seem to frolic ever,
Now hiding from my sight,
And then together clustering
As if in half affright
Yet conscious of their holiday
And happy in the light

No other coming flowers
To me are dear as they
Of those that bloom in April
Or in the genial May
I would that thus to confront me
They ever more would stay!

For tales of vanished childhood
To me they sweetly sing,
And in the fading memory
They rec[illegible] tions bring
Of home and loving faces—
A pro[illegible] ring

Unplucked I leave them growing
Full thick about my feet
I cannot call them [illegible]ward
From out their fair retreat
No refuge has the [illegible]
For anything so sweet

The story that they tell me
Of pleasure and content,
Of hope and loving confidence
However faith be blent—

Health Notice.

To the Citizens of Bangor.

The State has provided that certain measures shall be pursued in order to insure the health of the inhabitants Among these measures are the removing of filth, unclean and noisome substances, and all things injurious to health from the premises of citizens Permit me to suggest to you,

1st—To examine your cellars particularly, their condition in regard to ventilation, dampness, decaying vegetables, and all other filthy substances

2d—See if there is any offensive smell from your sinks or if your drains are clogged or uncovered.

3d—Examine your privies and vaults if they are full, running over, or filthy, or smell badly, have them emptied.

4th—See if there are decaying substances or filth of any kind about your premises

5th—See if there is any public nuisance in your neighborhood, such as open sewers, drains cesspools, stagnant water, offensive stables, hog sties, &c

6th—See if any drain, cesspool privy stable, or hog sty, is so near to your well as to soak or drain into it By observing and carrying out the above suggestions you will confer a favor on the public, and a blessing on yourself

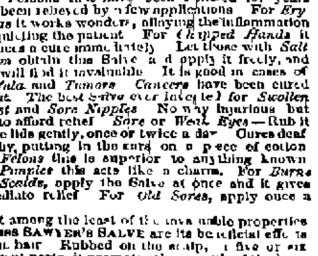
MISS SAWYER'S SALVE.



HERE you have a salve combining soothing and healing properties with no dangerous ingredient A remedy at hand for the many pains and aches wounds and bruises to which flesh is heir Is more easily applied than many other remedies never producing a bad effect but always relieving pain however severe

It is prepared by Miss Sawyer, who has used it in her own extensive treatment of the sick, for nearly twenty years, with great success

The principal diseases for which this salve is recommended are Chilblains Rheumatism, Piles Scrofula, Old Ulcers, Salt Rheum Sprains Burns, Fever Sores Felons Pimples Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, Barber's Itch Deafness Boils Ring worms, Corns, Bites of Insects Cancers, Toothache, Earache, Sore Nipples, Baldness, Swollen Breasts, Itch Scald Head, Teething Chapped Hands, Scalds Cuts, Bruises, Croup, Cracked Lips, and Sores on Children

It never fails to cure Rheumatism if properly applied Rub it on well with the hand three times a day. In several cases it has cured palsied limbs For Piles it has been discovered to be a sure remedy Persons that have been afflicted for years have been relieved by a few applications For Erysipelas it works wonders, allaying the inflammation and quieting the patient For Chapped Hands it produces a cure immediately Let those with Salt Rheum obtain this Salve and apply it freely, and they will find it invaluable It is good in cases of Scrofula and Tumors Cancers have been cured with it. The best salve ever invented for Swollen Breast and Sore Nipples No way injurious but sure to afford relief Sore or Weak Eyes—Rub it on the lids gently, once or twice a day Cures deafness by putting in the ears on a piece of cotton For Felons this is superior to anything known For Pimples this acts like a charm. For Burns and Scalds, apply the Salve at once and it gives immediate relief For Old Sores, apply once a day

Not among the least of the invaluable properties of Miss SAWYER'S SALVE are its beneficial effects on the hair Rubbed on the scalp, in five or six different parts, it promotes the growth of the hair, prevents it turning gray, and on bald spots it produces a new growth of hair No lady should be without this invaluable article as an indispensable cosmetic for the toilet. It eradicates dandruff and disease from the head, and blotches and pimples from the face

From Mrs ELIZABETH COOMBS Brunswick.

Brunswick April 4 1867

MISS SAWYER I received your letter last evening and was very glad you concluded to let me take your Salve I think I can do well with it and it will be quite an accommodation to my husband as he cannot get along without it He has tried everything ever and has never found anything that healed his leg as that Salve of yours and we have both found it to be all and even more than you recommend it to be We have had it in the family five or six years, and have used it for everything, and can truly say we have never found its equal I use it for a weak back, and it acts like a charm Mr Coombs has had a Fever Sore on his leg for thirty years and would be a cripple to day if he had not found a remedy in your Salve It keeps it healed, and takes out the inflammation proud flesh and swelling, and does for him all that he can ask I can recommend it for a good many things that you have not for I use it for everything I consider it invaluable in a family If you can put this testimony together, and it can be of any service to you, you are welcome

Yours, &c., ELIZABETH COOMBS
